

Student Support

By becoming one of our ministry partners you will be providing a wonderful opportunity for a Bible student in one of three countries in Africa.

For students in Uganda and Rwanda you will be given a personal profile written by the person you are supporting.* We hope this gives you a good idea of why your partnership is so valuable and how your support is making a difference to their faith and life.

*For students in The Gambia we don't yet offer this individual link. Donations are placed in a general fund and used to support all students.

E-Mail Link

If you would like, for students in Uganda we also provide the opportunity for you to be linked to your student via email, through an administrator's email.

All our students speak English with the courses held in English. Email provides a wonderful opportunity for sharing together, learning about each other's cultures and praying for each other.

Whilst we do not anticipate any problems in the vast majority of cases, we recognise some potential difficulties for students and supporters. As such, both students and ministry partners are asked to comply with a few rules:

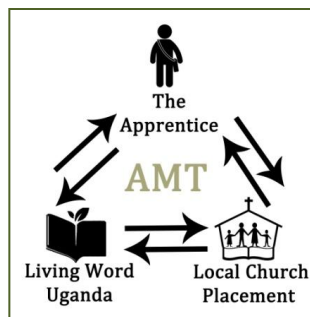

- 1) Students and ministry partners will not exchange any kind of contact information.
- 2) Students will not write regarding any need for money or material possessions, either for themselves or for anyone known to them.
- 3) Ministry partners will not donate any money or material possessions directly to the linked student.

LWI will provide support and deal with any concerns that arise as required.

Uganda Living Word Uganda

Led by Schwarz and Judith Manano, graduates of the Cornhill Training Course UK, Living Word Uganda provides a six month full time Apprentice Ministry Training programme.

This equips students with how to understand the Bible combined with practical teaching and preaching skills with each student placed at a local church.

The annual highlight at the end of their training, is a 5-day residential conference where university students and church leaders gather from across Uganda.

Each apprentice is then involved in teaching at the conference where looking to their future, they are also given opportunity to meet with church leaders.

Rwanda Word Increase

The need in Rwanda for Bible teaching is enormous with very few churches faithful to Scripture.

Led by Determine Syldio who studied at the Cornhill Training Course UK, Word Increase is a two-year part time course in expository Bible teaching. Students study various books of the Bible exploring principles for reading, interpreting and preaching each biblical genre. Evening and weekend classes enable those with full time employment to attend.

Servants of the Word

SOW students sitting exams

Servants of the Word (SOW) was established in 2012 by Steven Musa Kormayea, previous GamFES (IFES) Director and Cornhill alumnus. Its motto is “Every servant a disciple and a disciple-maker”, working to equip servant-hearted disciples of Jesus to go and make disciples through the faithful and truthful proclamation of God’s word.

Despite 95% of the people in The Gambia being Muslim, Christians are free to worship and study so providing a great current opportunity for training.

SOW offers a full-time residential course for nine months on its new campus, focussed on expository preaching and discipleship, plus electives on topics including evangelism, mission and children’s work.

Students are drawn from across West Africa, though there is a particular need to strengthen the church in The Gambia.

How much does it cost?

The total cost depends on the student you are supporting as the courses vary. We ask that you kindly commit to support your student to the end of their course. Payments can be made as a one off, monthly, quarterly or yearly as most convenient.

Uganda: 6 months full time: £360 (£60/month)

Rwanda: 2 years part time: £360 (£15/month)

Gambia: 9 month full time: £400 (£45/month)

Your support is used to help cover the costs of student needs such as their cost of tuition, a daily meal on study days and for students travelling from distance, help with transport.

What do I do now?

To support a student, either on your own or as part of a fellowship group, please complete both sides of the Student Support Form enclosed.

Your support will make a wonderful difference!

Thanks from the students!

Partner with a Bible Student in Africa

“We are so hungry for this kind of teaching – it is exactly what our country so desperately needs.”

(A student after attending one of our courses)

Living Word International offers you or your fellowship group the opportunity to partner with a Bible student in Africa and if desired have email correspondence with them.

Your partnership will make it possible for a student to attend Bible school.
